Biography:

The RED CHECKS are a welsh garage rock band now based in Manchester. With their blend of lyrical storytelling in soaring melodies driven by grungy, screaming guitars, they offer a modern and electrifying sound that is sure to resonate. The band draws inspiration from; The Libertines, The Strokes and Manic Street Preachers whilst infusing their own modern and edgy twist. Their songs feature infectious hooks, powerful riffs, and a high-energy stage presence that captivates audiences. Fronted by Welshman and lyricist Tomi Edwards, driven by guitarist and songwriter Rhys Miller, With Ben Turner (guitar) Shaun Roberts (bass) and Ekam Bijral (drums). The band are looking to redefine the garage rock genre with their heavier and more progressive evolution of garage rock.
